

The Keepsake Collection

Our process is a little different from other wedding vendors. We'll start with a Discovery Call where we'll take the time to get to know the two of you, tell you a little about us, and ultimately see if working together would be the best fit!

No pressure either way. If we find we're a great fit, then you've got someone you can trust in your corner. If we find we aren't, then you walk away with knowing exactly who you need for YOUR wedding.

Either way it's a win/win.
